HARRISON'S POLICY.

AS IT WILL AFFECT THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH.

NEW ELECTION LAWS PROPOSED

Which Will Repress the Voters-A Chance For a Lively Fight-The Ala-

WASHINGTON, April 5 .- [Special.] -One of the most interesting matters to observant poli-ticians in Washington has been embraced in the endeavor to make out from Mr. Harrison's appointments in the south, and from remarks made by him to callers, what will be his policy towards that section of the country. Enough has been developed today to establish-very conclusively several interesting points. With very few exceptions there have been no astute politics in any southern appointment which Mr. Harrison has made, nor has there been any endeavor to use .

THE SPOILS AS A NUCLEUS around which to build up a republican party south of Mason and Dixon line. His efforts seem, as far as appointments in the south are concerned, directed to healing the difference between the factions of his party in each state. Judging from the expressions which the disappointed ones give vent to his success has been by no means remarkable. Again Mr. Harrison has not taken hold of what is known as the Birmingham idea, the pregramme of which would involve an attempt to break into the solid ranks of southern democracy by get-ing protectionist democrats and republicans of good standing into the same party. Mr. Har-rison, it is stated on very high authority, looks

THE BIRMINGHAM IDEA as being as chimerical as was the the effort of Hayes to revive the old time whig party in the south, and cause it to aly itself with the republicans. Mr. Harrison said in his inaugural address, and has repeated the same statement time and time again since that address was delivered, that he would have but ne policy for the whole country. He doubt-less means what he says, but there are wheels within wheels. From what has emanated from him on several occasins when southern republicans and other politicians not from the uth, who have called upon him, it is evident that one of the inside wheels is going to roll out his southern policy. The well informed and quiet observers of what is going on here are as confident as they are that the sun will rise tomorrow that Mr. Harrison in his first message to congress will recommend to that

THE ADOPTION OF NEW LAWS ing the election of members of the house. The republicans have not got much of a margin in their majority in the next house, and the democrats, if they work together, can defeat almost any proposed legislation which they desire to defeat. At any rate, if Mr. Harrison's forthcoming recommendation in regard to elections is attempted to be put through it will bring on a fight as exciting as was witnessed in the house when the celebrated force bill was before that body.

THE ALABAMA REPUBLICANS.

The Factions Present to Fight Over the Washington, April 5.—[Special.]—This was Alabama day at the white house. The vener-able John Calvin Goodloe, of Tuscumbia, anded in the city this morning with a jug of hard cider, and has opened headquarters at the Arlington hotel. The general does not want anything himself, but is here for the purpose of taking a hand in the fight securing, if possible, good men for the respective places. The two factions in that state are MAKING A VIGOROUS FIGHT upon each other, and there is no telling where it will end. One faction is known as the Moseley faction, headed by Dr. Moseley, of Birmingham, and the other by Henry C Youngblood, also of Birmingham. It is almost as bitter a fight as that which has been, and is being, waged between the Longstreet and Buck factions in Georgia. Lewis E. Parsons, Jr., from Birmingham, who wants to be district attorney for the northern district, arrived here today, and is cocked and primed for the fray. Colonel Jim Jackson, also of Tuscumbia is his chief opponent. The latter of course, will be indersed by General Goodloe' and his indorsement, it is believed, will have considerable weight with the brain under grandpa's hat. For the southern district of Alabama it seems that Colonel W. D. Wickersham, of Mobile, is in the lead for the district attorneyship, and his chief opponent, G. N. Dunkin, is well indorsed. General Slaughter, also of Mobile, is a candidate for United States marshal, of that district, as is also N. W. Trimblelow, also of Mobile.

THE BIRMINGHAM POSTOFFICE. The fight for the Birmingham postoffice is becoming lively in the extreme. It is almost as exciting as was the Birmingham mot when it undertook to hang Dick Hawes. Houston is said to be in the lead, though Smith and Hughes are hustling him pretty hard. The appointment, it is believed, will be made within the next week. P. D. Darker, of Mobile, who used to be in the revenue service, is after something, but as yet has not shown

ELGIN LOCHRANE THERE,

And He Is Having a Good Time, Too, While

Waiting For a Consulship. Washington, April 5 .- [Special.]-Elgin Lochrane, of Atlanta, is in the city. He is a candidate for a position in the consular service, as he desires to go abroad for awhile. Mr. Lochrane has not spent all of his time haunting the white house, or at the state department; he has been enjoying the attractions of the national capital in a manner that would suggest his being sent to Paris. His chances are not excessively brilliant for securing an appointment, though he is not without hope of catch ing a good prize in the deal.

THE NEW CRUISERS,

The Atlanta Ordered to New York-The Yorktown Getting Ready.

Washington, April 5.—The cruiser Atlanta now at Aspinwall, has been ordered by telegraph to New York. Although subject to future emergencies, it is the present intention to send the Yorktown to New York on the 20th, so that the latest efforts at naval construction may be seen at the centennial celebration. She has been formally accepted from the contractors subject to special reservations of money on account of work yet to be done.

The German corvette "Sophie," which sails from Zanzibar today for Samoa, is another fine ship, superior to either the "Richmond." "Adams," or "Alert," which will constitute the American squadron at Samoa. She is of HENEEDS A REST. The President Wift Probably Take a Day or Two Off.

Washington, April 5.—The president has practically determined to take a few days rest and recreation outside of Washington, as soon as he can do so, without sacrificing public interest. He has been under a severe strain, mentally and physically, for the last eight months and it is beginning to tell on his health. Friends and physicians have advised him to take a short respite from official duties and he has promised to do so at the first favorable opportunity. He made some inquiries about a trip to Fort Monroe, and the rumor was soon started that he was going to take a cruise in Chesapeake bay on a revenue cutter. His de-parture was fixed by the rumor for tomorrow, and Fort Monroe as his destination.

NO TRUTH IN THE RUMOR. Inquiry at the white house this afternoon showed that there was no truth in the report, showed that there was no truth in the report, as far as this week is concerned. There are several obstacles in the way of the trip being made so soon, the chiof and all sufficient one being the lack of an available vessel. There are two revenue cutters at Baltimore, one being out of commission and the other undergoing repairs. One of them could soon be put in condition for the president's use, and orders to that effect may be issued in a few days, provided the president decides on a trip by water. There are also two lighthouse tenders at Norfolk, either of which could be utilized if desired.

There is usually a naval vessel in this vicin-There is usually a naval vessel in this vioinity in the summer time for just such trips as have been recommended to the president, but it so happens that there is none here at the present time. It is, however, very probable that the president will leave the city for a few days by the end of next week, but it is not likely that any definite arrengement as to destination or means of transportation will be made for several days.

PIERSON'S SUCCESSOR. Cornelius Van Cott Appointed Postmaster

of New York City. Washington, April 5.—The president has appointed Joel B. Erhard collector of customs and Cornelius Van Cott postmaster of New York city.

C. R. Faulkner, of Indiana, chief of the record division in the pension office, has rerecord division in the pension signed by request.

L. Q. C. Lamar, Jr., chief of the stationery divison of the interior department, has also resigned to engage in private business. Mr. Lamar's resignation was unsolicited. William R. Lapham, of New York, has been appointed

R. Lapham, of New York, has been appointed acting chief of the same division.
Cornelius Van Cott, the new postmaster of New York city, has for a number of years been a fire commissioner of that city.

It is said at the I treasury department that Erhardt was the choice of the republican party of the state of New York for the position of collector of the port of New York, without regard to wings, sides or factions and that his was a most harmonious appointment. He was indorsed by Vice-President Morton, Secretary Tracy, Senators Hiscock and Evarts, nearly Tracy. Senators Hiscock and Evarts, nearly Tracy. THE HOUR OF PRAYER.

Proclamation by the President Calling on th People to Give Thanks. WASHINGTON, April 5. - The following pro

lamation was issued late this afternoon: By the president of the United States—a procla-nation: One hundred years have passed since the government which our forefathers founded was formally organized. At noon on the thirtieth day of April, seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, in the city of New York; and in the presence of an assemblage of herole men, whose patriotic devotion had led colonies to victory and independent, George Washington took the eath of office as thier mag. 8 trate of the new born republic.

This impressive act was preceded at 9 o'clock in

This impressive act was preceded at 9 o'clock in the morning, in all the churches of the city, by prayer for God's blessing on the government and its first president. The centennial of this illustrions event in our history has been declared a general holiday by act of congress to the end that the people of the whole country may join in commentorative exercises appropriate to the day.

In order that the joy of the occasion may be associated with deep thankfulness in the minds of the people for all our blessings in the past and devout supplication to God for their gracious continuance in the future, representatives of religious creeds, both Christain and Hebrew, have memorialized the government to designate an hour for prayer and thanksgiving on that day.

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States of America, in response to this pious and reasonable request, do recommend that on Tuesday, April 30th, at the hour of 9 o'clock in the morning, the people of the entire country repair to their respective places of divine worship to implore favor of God that the blessing of liberty, prosperity and peace may abide with us as a people and that His hand may lead us in the paths of righteousness and good deeds.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set, my hand in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of Amer and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed. Done in the city of Washington, this the 4th day of April, in the year of our Lord, 18-9, and of the independence of the United States, one hundred and thriteen.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

By the President: JAMES G. BLANNE. Secretary of State. ROBERTS WILL ACCEPT

The Position of Assistant Treasurer at New

Washington, April 5.—Secretary Windom received a telegram this afternoon from Ellis H. Roberts, accepting the appointment of asistant treasurer at New York. It is expected that he will perfect his bond and qualify some time next week. He is required to execute a bond in the sum of $400,000. Treasurer Hyatt will remain in charge of the New York subwill remain in charge of the New York sub-treasury until Roberts qualifies, and arrange-ments will then be made for a count of the moneys and securities in the sub-treasury. Mr. Huston, the newly appointed treasurer, was at the treasury department today and had an in-terview with Secretary Windom. He will not assume the duties of his new office until after

Treasurer Hyatt is released of his present ex-tra responsibilities in the New York office, and the treasurer may still further delay qualify-ing until after the examination of the New York sub-treasury is completed. HARRISON AT THE CENTENNIAL. The Arrangement for the Reception of the President. New York, April 5.—According to arrangements completed by the centennial committee today, President Harrison will come to Elizabeth direct from Washington. He will arrive at Elizabeth at about 8 in the forence of Monday, April 20, This plan, of course, does away with the proposed reception at Philadelphia and Trenton. The president will breakfast with Governor Green, of New Lersey, etc. fast with Governor Green, of New Jersey, at Elizabeth. At 11 a. m. he will be at Elizabeth-port, where the New York committee will receive him.

The other Washington officials will arrive shortly after the president. After the literary shortly after the president will be president will shortly after the president. After the literary exercises at the sub treasury the president will be driven rapidly to the reviewing stand opposite Fifth Avenue hotel. The other guests of the committee will get there by special train on the Third avenue elevated road. The army committee find they will have to provide sustenance for 8,000 Pennsylvania troops, while here, the legislature of that state having falled to make an appropriation for the purpose.

BLOOD AT THE POLLS. TWO POLITICAL FACTIONS FIGHT AT A PRIMARY.

EVERYTHING ENDS IN DISORDER. Ristols, Knives and Clubs Used-Two Demo cratic City Tickets Will Result on Account of Factional Feeling.

ALBANY, N. Y. April 5 .- Cohoes has been in the hands of a democratic mob all day, and tonight the condition of affairs is unchanged, with drunken brawlers and excited adherents of the two democratic factions still excitedly discussing the situation. The democratic primaries to nominate supervisors, aldermen and a city ticket were held today. On one side

THE CLEVELAND FOLLOWING, directed by D. Cady Herrick, from Albany, with Postmaster Larkin and Ex-County Clerk Largin in immediate command. On the other side was the Hill following, directed by Edside was the Hill following, directed by Edward Murphy, Jr., from Troy, with Mayor Garside in immediate command. The rioting was confined to three of the wards. In the other two the Larkin regulars had things their own way, and nominated their men by majorities of four and seven. In the other three wards there was violance. The Larkin men had the inspectors, Garside had the police. Some time ago one of the police commissioners was "induced" to turn the force over to the control of the mayor, who turned out the old force and formed.

AN ENTIRELY NEW ONE. The po'ice were present at the polls in force. Civilians sworn in as specials were left in con-trol of the stationhouse. In one of the wards after the regulars had admitted the watcher of the other side to the polling place, one of the police endeavored to force his way in. He was warned to desist, but persisted, and with a sledge hammer battered down the door. He was struck on the head with a lead pipe, a nole was cut through his cheek and staggering COVERED WITH BLOOD ne fell outside the poll. Then the riot began. Pistols, knives and clubs were used. The ballot box was smashed and both sides claimed the victory. No one was fatally injured, except, possibly the policeman. While this except, possibly the policeman. While this was transpiring, in another ward a policeman endeavored to make his way into the polling place through a saloon next door. He was choked by the proprietor until black in the face, thrown over the bar and kicked into the street. In another ward a policeman battered a man over the head inflicting injuries which are reported fatal. Small fights were of constant occurrence. stant occurrence.

FACTIONAL FEELING RUNS SO HIGH, and the disturbance is so great, that is almos impossible to secure full and reliable news. After the regular primaries were broken up, they were continued in the midst of groups of the opposing factions. Two democratic city tickets and two democratic candidates in each ward will be the result.

HELL'S HOLLOW.

iquatters Defying the State Authorities of Iowa,

DES MOINES, Ia., April 5 .- A United State marshel and posse yesterday evicted Factor Blake from the Litchfield lands, better known as the Des Moines river lands. Blake's farm is in Hamilton county, sixteen miles southeast of Webster City, near what is known among the settlers as Hell's Hollow. When the posse reached the place they found Blake had moved his house across the road and entirely off the Litchfield track. Some of his machinery was still left, but this he was getting out of the way as rapidly as possible. The officers did not molest Blake nor offer him any violence whatever, but shortly after they arrived upon the scene

A PUFF OF SMOKE, A RIFLE CRACK, and a whizzing bullet told them that the setand a whitzing bullet told them that the set-tlers had opened fire. Shots came from a dense thicket of hazel a quarter of a mile away. Probably forty shots were fired, but the marksmanship was either poor or the range was in-tentionally wide, for none of the deputies were hurt. The posse had a number of writs, but as they were only armed with revolvers they did not attempt to serve them, but retreated in good order. There were probably twenty or thirty armed settlers in the timber. Marshal Desmond will take the matter personally in charge in a few days and will execute the writs or die in the attempt. The settlers have been organizing all the winter. They have what is known as the River Land Settlers' inton, and are as thoroughly disciplined and as well prepared for systematic action as the kuklux ever were. They are

ARMED WITH WINCHESTER RIFLES and indulge in target shooting daily. They have sworn to resist all attempts at eviction, and, as the United States marshals will do their duty, regardless of consequences, blood-shed seems destined to result. Their system of spreading news by telephone from town to town and by carriers mounted on fleet horses is well perfected. If a marshal appears in Webster City or Fort Dodge, within an hour or two the fact is known on every section of river land in Webster and Hamilton counties, and every movement of the marshal is westered by faithful angle and is proceed. and every movement of the marshal is watched by faithful spies and is promptly re-

That part of Hamilton county where the shooting occurred yesterday is very rough and covered with a scraggy growth of timber and thickets in plenty. When the marshals reached this neighborhood, the river landers secreted themselves in the timber and opened fire upon them.

After evicting Blake, the marshals started to return. They had procedeed about three-fourths of a mile across the hollow, when a regular fusillade of bullets rained about them. The attack soon ceased and the marshals concluded not to go on with the work until reinforced. Then eviction will proceed without delay. The settlers are determined. NEW YORK, April 5.—A complete surprise was occasioned among merchants engaged in the shirt trade this afternoon by the amouncement of the failure of Downs & Finch, shirt manufacturers, at 43 and 45 Leonard "twer, having three large factories, one each at Jamesburg, Bordentown and Heightstown, N. J. The firm was regarded as a leading one in the manufacture of fancy shirts in the United States, and was composed of Daniel H. Downs and Cornelius M. Finch, general partners, and V. Henry Rothschild and Isaac Dreyfuss, as special partners made a general assignment without preferences to Theodors F. Miller, Isayer, at 229 Broadway, Liabilities are stated between $400,000 and $500,000, and assets much greater.

PREPARING FOR THE DAY When Oklahoma Will Be Opened for Settle-

Topeka, Kans., April 5. Members of the state board of railroad assessors, just returned from a trip through Oklahoma, report army officers as saying that thousands of boomers are still concealed in the brush, and that if the whole United States army were there it could not drive them out. Names are taken, but not drive them out. Names are taken, but nine out of ten are fictitious. Captain Woodson and Lieutenant Carson are in receipt of telegrams daily to hire horses, have them saddled and bridled, and in waiting on arrival of trains at Oklahema City, on April 22, at noon. The object is to mount at once, and by fleet steeds distance rival boomers on foot and capture choice claims.

A party of four hoosiers with a balloon are camped near Antelope hills. They will make an ascent in the morning, drift in mid air till noon, and then descend hours in advance of the teams and speedy horses. State officials anticipate trouble and say the country will be an Eldorado for good land office lawyers. Settlers taking claims will finu it difficult to describe the same when they go to the land office to make a filting, and this will give rise

THE ATMOSPHERE READY TO BURN. The Terrible Stories Told by the Farmers of

YANKTON, Dak., April 5.—The stories of armers who suffered by the flames Tuesday show that it was no ordinary prairie fire. It licked up everything combustible, and grass and stubble and wood broke into flames seemingly without coming in contact with fires. The combustion was almost spontaneous in the dry and heated condition of the atmosphere, set in motion by the terrific gale. The condi-tions seemed similar to those existing at the time of the great Chicage fire and the fires in the Wisconsin woods, when the atmosphere was almost ready to ignite and burn. An in-tense electrical condition also prevailed. All things considered, the visitation was as re-markable as it was calamitous.

Meadows, who was killed in January last, was cleared up today by the confession o Ben Elgy alias Jim Williams, Elgy is the negro who two weeks ago assaulted and re Mrs. J. U. Lundy, and who is wanted in Cobb county, Georgia, for the murder of Mrs. Hargrove, and in Atlanta for burglary and other erimes. Four negroes were arrested yester-day for the murder of Meadows, and Elgy, without knowing of these arrests, stated in his confession that he was assisted in the murder and robbery by the four men now in jail. He says he planned the crime and induced them and robbery by the four men now in jail. He says he planned the crime and induced them to aid him. He told the names of the negroes and where they lived. Elgy, in his confession, says he found Meadows drunk in a saloon on the night of the murder. Seeing Meadows with a gold watch and a large sum of money, he secured the assistance of the other negroes, and they induced their victim to go with them to the spot where he was murdered, which is about two miles from the city. This murder was one of the mysteries which baffled the entire detective force of the city. HANGED BUT NOT DEAD.

A Negro Criminal Resuscitated by His Rela

SMITHVILLE, Tenn., April 5 .- [Special.]-Last Saturday morning a negro man stopped at a well known negro farmer's house, and stayed several hours, and he returned Sunday and stopped all night. Monday morning the farmer saw his guest arranging his 'kerchief around his neck, and saw that it was badly skinned and swollen. The negro on being questsoned, confessed that he was Mack Francis.

WHO HAD BEEN HANGED FRIDAY at Lebanon, and that he had been resuscitated by his relatives. It will be remembered that Francis's neck was not broken, and that the francis's neck was not broken, and that the rope slipped, and he was not strangled. His heart continued to beat for twenty minutes, when the physician prenounced him dead. The description tallies with Francis, and the people in that neighborhood believe the negro is alive. Other parties between Lebanon and Smithville have claimed to have seen Francis since the hanging.

TAKEN OUT AND HANGED.

An Orderly Lynching in Granger County,

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 5 .- John Wolfenberger, an escaped convict, who shot and killed Sheriff Lee, of Granger county, Wednesday, was taken today from the county jail at Rutledge, and hanged by the citizens. When Rutledge, and hanged by the citizens. When captured last night. Wolfenberger was suffering from a wound inflicted by the sheriff's posse. The citizens surrounded the jail last night to lynch him, but determined to wait till daylight. The jail was strongly guarded by citizens to prevent his escape. Before noon today nearly half the male population of Granger county was in Rutledge. About noon the jail was broken open and the prisoner taken out and hanged. The hanging was as orderly as a legal execution.

The Work of Experts.

Birmingham, Ala., April 5.—[Special.]—
Last night burglars broke into and robbed the postoffice at Randolph, Ala., a small town fifty miles south of this city. Dr. J. W. Brand, the postmaster, is a merchant, and the postoffice is in his store. The burglars blew open the safe with powder and secured everything of value. They obtained $60 in money and $68 worth of stamps belonging to the postoffice, and about $250 belonging to the store. A hole was drilled in the door of the safe, and it was blown open in the most approved fashion, showing that the robbery was the work of experts.

Rochester's Street Car Strike.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 5.—The street car strike is still on, and both sides are firm. The company has twenty-three ears running today. The strikers are quiet. The barnmen, about 160 in all, joined the strikers this morning. Last night two turntables on the outskirts of the city were stolen and obstructions placed on the tracks in many places. The strikers claim that roughs did the work.

The Phi Kappa Pel Fraternity. The Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Washington, April 4.—The southern district of the Phi Kappi Psi fraternity closed its three day's session in Alexandria tonight, and adjourned to meet in Columbia, S. C., in April, 1891. A banquet ended the exercises, W. A. Barber of South Carolina, was chosen to represent the district on the executive council. The district decided that action should at once be taken by the executive council to extend the fraternity in the south. ROCHEFORT NEXT.

THE PHOSPHATE LANDS. A Big Boom in the Guano Beds of South

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 5.-[Special.]-There is an unexpected boom here in phosphate lands. A half dozen or more capitalists from New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston have been in the city for the past six or eight days, inquiring for phosphate lands, and eight days, inquiring for phosphate lands, and within the past week three tracts, averaging from 300 to 400 acres each, have been sold at prices ranging from $60,000 to $70,000. These sales have made the landowners stiff, and prices have gone up rapidly. Lands which six months ago might have been purchased at $30 an acre are now held at irom $200 to $300 an acre. And the holders are reluctant to sell even at these figures. There are thousands of acres of phosphate lands in this section yet undeveloped. "I am hunting for a farm. I have sold out my old farm in Carolina, have got the cash and wish to invest in a Thomas county, Georgia, farm."

Out of curiosity, Mr. Mallette asked him how he came to come to Thomasville.
"I read The ATLANTA CONSTITUTION," replied Mr. Jones, "and I notice they often write of Thomasville and Thomas county. I was especially impressed by an article which appeared about a month ago headed Prosperous Thomasville.' All I know of Thomas

The case excited the liveliest interest, and the court house was packed during the entire day. The evidence was circumstantial except that of Au Chin, who swore positively that Gwaltney STRUCK HIM TWO BLOWS on the head with a hatchet. A great sensa-tion was created when the defense proposed to introduce Hardy Hamilton, who has already been convicted of the crime. The court requested Hamilton's counsel to instruct him that he could decline to testify, and especially if it was probable that a motion for a new trial would be made in his case. Hardy informed his counsel that he was anxious to testify, that he knew he had to die, that it was right that he should, as he alone was guilty of the crime. Hardy was then placed in the witness box. AMERICUS AS A WINTER RESORT. A Plan by Which a Grand Hotel Will Be Secured.

AMERICUS, Ga., April 5.—[Special.]—The prospect for an elegant winter resort hotel for Americus assumed something of a definite shape today. A party of wealthy New Yorkers have been looking over the field with the view to building a fine hotel for northern visitors, and have entered into a proposition with the board of county commissioners, whereby the latter agree to give the old courthouse square, worth forty thousand dollars, to any company that will build a hotel to cost one hundred thousand dollars. There is little doubt but that the proposition will be accepted by the northerners, as they are charmed with this city and section of Georgia. The Americus street railsection of Georgia. The Americus street rail-way company are also contemplating the erec-tion of a big hotel for the accommodation of winter tourists in the new suburban city which they are now laying out, two miles from Americus. swift's speciac has cured me of a malignant break-ing out on my leg, which caused intolerable pain. It was called Eczema by the doctors—four of whom treated me with no relief, I candidly confess that I owe my present good health to S. S. S., which in my estimation is invaluable as a blood remedy. MISS JULIA DEWITT. 2227 N. 10th St., St. Louis, Mo.

I was the victim of the worst Catarch that I ever heard of. I was entirely deaf in one ear, and all the inside of my nose, including part of the bone, sloughed off. No treatment benefitted me, and physicians said I would never be any better. I took S. S. as a last resort, and it has entirely cured me. I have been well four years, and no sign of return of the dreadful disease. Mrs. Josephine Polinicia.

Due West, S. C.

I wish to proclaim to the world what S. S. S. has done for me. For the past ten years I have been troubled with dreadful eruptions on my face, caused by ivy poison. I was under the treatment of a number of physicians, but obtained no relief. I tried the best "blood purifiers" in he market, but without avail. I had given up in despair, thinking I could not be cured; but happening to read the Detroit Journal, I noticed S. S. S. advertised and red Mrs. Bradley's testimonial. I thought I would try this remedy. I have taken eight bottles, and there is not a spot on my face. It has also cured me of chronic catarth. I have never enjoyed better health than at present. I feel like a new person. I cannot find words to express my appreciation of its merits, and the gratitude I feel for the glad tidness that came to me through the reading of that advertisement. Wishing you every success, I am Yours truly, Josie Owen, Montpelier, O.

Our family physician, a skilful man and of large experience, pronounced it useless to give her any more medicine; saying that he had done all it was possible to do, and we must prepare for the worst. As a last resort, we determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and I can truly say, with the most happy results. MR, HASS TALKS ABOUT THE AWARD OF THE SEWER CONTRACTS.

He Asserts That the Bids Were Irregular and Should Not Have Been Accepted-He Tells Why He

The board of alderman has attained an unusual prominence, and it all comes out of the session of Thursday morning.

Session of Thursday morning.

The body, however, appears to be holding its own.

Some people think the board did right in awarding the contracts to W. D. Palmer and W. D. Pease, while others say that the contract should not have been given to persons whose bids were not perfect. These are the two sides to the story, and the talk is plentiful both ways. Mr. Haas, of the aldermanic board, is one of the gentlemen thoroughly dissatisfied with the award, and is talking openly. Yesterday he said:

"It was not my intention to have anything farther to say upon the award of the contracts for sewers and sidewalks, but Mr. Amorous's interview in this morning's Constitution constrains me to place the subject before the people in its proper light. It was not a question whether the Chattahoochee Brick company, S. H. Venable & Co., W. D. Palmer, Pease & Co., or D'Alvigny & Co., should or should not have the contracts. The lowest bids not having been made according to law or the advertisement or ordinances, re-advertisement should have been made for new bids. I feel confident that bids equally as low would have been received. I have always favored the wilest competition for all classes of city work and shall continue to do so in the future. The only way the city can protect itself against fraudulent bidders, or combinations among bidders, is to enforce existing ordinance on page 350 of the city code. That ordinance—to present collusion among bidders faith work Peased luly 5th 1386. The ordinance reads:

An ordinance—to prevent collusion among bidders for city work. (Passed July 5th, 1886.) The major and general council of the city of Atlanta do ordain. mayor and general council of the city of Atlanta do ordain.

That no bid of any contractor for permanent street, sever or sidewalk work shall be entertained, unless there shall accompany the bid of the contractor an affidavit, wherein the contractor shall state under oath that he has not, by himself or others, directly or indirectly, entered into any combination, arrangement or scheme, whatsoever, with any other bidder to increase the price of said work, or to offer a different sum from his bid, and that he has entered into no arrangement, express or implied, to induce others not to bid, or to do any by-bidding, and that his bid is bonafide, and that he has not gone to any furnisher of supplies and attempted to get such person or company to only furnish the material to him, or if furnished another bidder that the material snall be at a higher price; and if, during the progress of the furnished another bidder that the material shall be at a higher price; and if, during the progress of the work, or any time before it is paid for, it is ascertained that such contractor has violated the letter or the spirit of this ordinance, he shall forfeit all right to compensation for any work done, and a reward of one hundred dollars is offered any informer who shall furnish the evidence of any collusion or other combination between bidders or contractors for ally work.

"In addition to that ordinance I want to

"In addition to that ordinance I want to present an extract from the printed contract for sewers for the city of Atlanta. It says: "Permission will not be given for the withdrawal, modification or explanation of any bid or proposal." ("Then, as you know, an affidavit is printed on all blank bids furnished by the city to the bidders. It reads: "Georgia, Fulton county.—Personally comes before me—, a notary public for and in six d county,—, who being duly sworn, says that—— na— not, by—or others, directly or indirectly, entered into any combination, arrangement or scheme whatsover, with any other bidder, to increase the price of said work, or to offer a different sum from—bid, and that—entered into no arrangement, express or implied, to induce others not to bid or to do any by-bidding, and that—tid is bonafide, and that—not gone to any furnisher of supplies and attempted to get such person or company to only furnish the material to—or if furnished another bidder that the material shall be at a higher price.

Sworn to sud subscribed before me this the sworn to and subscribed before me this the —day of — 188 . — Contractor.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the—day of—188.—Contractor.

"It appears that if the ordinance means anything at all, it means strict compliance on the part of contractors and bidders as well as members of the general conneil. Every contractor was put upon notice that permission will be given for the "withdrawal, modification or explanation of any bid or proposal." Neither the bid of W. D. Palmer, for the sewer work, or Pease & Co., for sidewalks, was in compliance with the ordinance on the subject. Colonel Goodwin, city attorney, held that members of the council-would have no "legal" obstacle in the way of setting aside this ordinance temporarily, if it was, in their judgment for the good of the city. Alderman Hutchison as well as myself and others thought the city would not be doing the square thing in receiving bids from anybody without the required affidavit. I am a law abiding citizen myself. I do not believe I have any more right to violate or set aside a city ordinance, as a member of council than I would otherwise—even though to gain temporary advantage by so daing. The head writing in the bids of Pease ing bids from anybody without the required affildavit. I am a law abiding citizen myself. I do not believe I have any more right to violate or set aside a city ordinance, as a member of council than I would otherwise—even though to gain temporary advantage by so doing. The hand writing in the bids of Pease & Co. and W. D. Palmer was strikingly similar. Neither bid contained the affidavit, hence I thought caution advisable. Now, Mr. Palmer's bid for sewer work, which was accepted by the majority of the committee on streets and sewers, was not the lowest bid for sewer work and I called the attention of the committee to that fact. Mr. Palmer, however, in his bid omitted to make a bid for the laying of the terra cotta pipe, and the committee held that he could not amend his bid. How they could reconsider this with permit. mittee held that he could not amend his bid. How they could reconsider this with permitting Mr. Pease to bring his affidavit and thereby amend his bid for sidewalks and accepting that amended aid I leave them to explain. This lower bid even though the city laid the sewer pipe at its own expense would have saved the city an addition of $3,000 a year. Mr. Amorous stated in the committee meeting if I would vote-to accept the Pease bid he would vote with; me. I told him that both the Pease and Palmer bids were irregular but if it was simply to save money for the city and rease and Paimer bids were irregular but hi it was simply to save money for the city and nothing else, regardless of the ordinance and other requirements, it was the duty of the ma-jority to report in favor of the lowest bids. I told them distinctly that I could only entertain such bids as came in comcould only entertain such bids as came in compliance with existing laws. I then made a motion to accept D'Alvigny's bid. Mr. Thompson amended my motion by making the suggestion to advertise for new bids which I accepted and withdrew the original motion. Upon the division Mr. Thompson and myself voted to advertuse for new bids—the balance of the committee, Messrs. Woodward, Meador, Amerous, Stephens and McLendon voted to accept the bids of W. D. Palmer and Pease. I renewed my argument in another shape—as being opposed to a five year contract.

"In that I was heartly sustained by City Engineer Clayion. Mr. Clayton gave it as his best judgment that yearly contracts would be best judgment that yearly contracts would be best judgment that yearly contracts would be for the best interest of the city. Finding that the committee would make a report I called City Attorney Goodwin aside and spoke of a letter which in my judgment would compromise W. D. Palmer. Mr. Goodwin informed me it was my duty as a member of the council to lay the matter before the committee. I did so, but it did not, however, produce any im pression, and the committee adjourned. I did lay Mr. Palmer's letter, of which the following is a copy, before the meeting of the council: lay Mr. Palmer's letter, of which the following is a copy, before the meeting of the council: ATLANTA, Ga. March 31, 1889.—Mr. Charles D'Aivigny—Dear Sir. I write to know if Captain Rust has seen you this morning. He promised mèhe would see you about a matter that I believe we ca make to our mutual benefit.

"I want to state clearly and emphatically that I do not know either Palmer or Pease, and it seems that no one else knows the latter—Pease. I make no charges against these gentlemen. I only state what appears reasonable to a man of discretion. Myself as well as other members of the council and the beard of aldermen who voted not to accept the bids of Messrs. Pease and Palmer, did so with a distinct understanding that the city council should re-advertise for bids."

Lost in the Storm.

Lost in the Storm.

One of our local editors clipped from a leading magazine extracts from a vivid description of a western blizzard which we have taken the liberty to publish and at the same time suggest to H. H. Warner & Co., the proprietors of the celebrated Warner's Safe Cure, the feasibility of taking therefrom an extract for the introduction of one of their telling advertisements. The following is the description:

"At the close of a dark day in January a solitary horseman wends his way across the open prairie in one of our western territories. He passes at long intervals the lone cabin of the hardy frontiersman. Two or three old settlers, of whom he has inquired the way, have warned him that a storm is approaching.

have warned him that a storm is approaching settlers, of whom he has inquired the way, have warned him that a storm is approaching, and one of them, with true western hospitality, urgos him to find shelter in his cabin for the night. But he declines the proffered kindness and urges his tired horse forward. * * The sky grows suddenly dark. * * He decides to seek shelter. * * The storm increases in its fury. * * * The rider dismounts to warm his fast chilling limbs. * * Can scarcely breathe. Blindness comes on. Drowsiness steals over him. The end is near. * * He is lost in the blizzard."

There is no doubt that the terror which seizes the bewildered traveler is similar to that which overcomes one when he learns that he is suffering from an advanced Kidney Disease, and is informed that he is in the last stages of Bright's disease. At first he is informed that he has a slight kidney affection. Later he begins to feel tired. Slight headache. Fickle appetite. Failure of the eye-sight. Cramp in the calf of the legs. Wakefulness. Distressing nervousness. Rh eumatic and neuralgic pains. Occasionally pain in the back. Scanty, dark colored fluids, with scalding sensation. Gradual failure of strength.

colored fluids, with scalding sensation. Gradual failure of strength.

Any of the above symptoms signify Kidney Affection, but he is told that he is all right. His physician treats him for symptoms and calls it a disease, when in reality it is but a symptom of Kidney trouble. He may be treated for Rheumatic or Neuralgic pains, heart affection, or any other disease which he is most susceptible to. Finally the patient has puffling under the eyes, slight bloating of the ankles and legs. His physician may inform him that it is but the accumulation of blood in his ankles for want of proper exercise.

The bloat continues and reaches his body. Then he is informed he has dropsical troubles, and is tapped once or twice. He notices it is difficult to breathe owing to irregular action of the heart, and finally is informed that he has a slight attack of Bright's Disease, and that he can live but a short time.

formed that he has a slight attack of Bright's Disease, and that he can live but a short time. His honorable and dignified physician asks for counsel. It is too late. Still he sticks to the old family physician, and the physician knows and has known from the beginning that the patient has been stricken with death for months, for he knows full well that the profession acknowledge they have no remedies for the cure of Kidney Disease.

At last the patient suffocates—is smothered—and dies from dropsical trouble. Or perhaps the disease may not take the form of a dropsical tendency, and the patient dies from apoplexy.

tendency, and the patient dies from apoplexy, negrect, but he is lost. He did not need the warning that a storm was approaching. He declined the proffered hospitality, and recklessly went forward into danger. He struggled manfully for a time, but his strength failed, he grew gradually weaker and he was lost to the world. Not in a blizzard, but from the terrible malady which is almost daily occurring in every community, and which is decreased as community, and which is dectored as a symptom instead of what it is,—a mortal disease unless properly treated.

Shall We Go Begging For Them? Isn't it time for the committee that le soliciting funds in New York for a Confederate Veteran's home to recall its appeals and close up its work?

The poverty of our old veterans has been dragged through the north until it is a sorry tale too often told. Their wounds and their rags have been exposed, even as were those of Belisarius of old, and not to the credit due to their cheerful fortitude and to the manliness of our people. We have never had any heart in this scheme of establishing headquarters in New York, where the woes of our poor and brave heroes should be retailed and a collection taken up for their benefit-and we have less now than ever.

The appeal has been circulating for more than a month in New York. Public meetings have been held and great speeches made on both sides. Illustrious union generals have written letters indorsing the charity. Committees have reported and have traversed the streets of New York and Invested the offices of business men. A many times millionaire, with an an income of a half million a year, is chairman of the receiving committee. And yet, after all this beseeching, and all this parade, the millionaire chairman announces that only $1,500 has been paid into his hands!

Come home, Major Joe Stewart! Disband your committee, withdraw your appeal, and let our old soldiers retire once more into the seclusion from which they had better never been drawn. Come home, major! The people of Georgia pay annually over $3,-000,000 as their share of the taxes from which the soldiers of the union army are pensioned, and they do not complain. Out of their poverty this goes from free and willing hands - and they have enough left to take care of their own veterans who are dependent and disabled. Come home, Major Stewart, and let us take our heroes to our own hearts and wear them there-never to be paraded again with their limping gait, their poor wounds and their shabby raiment through the lines of strangers, of whom charity is begged for their behalf! Somehow or other, God bless them, we will manage to make their way to the grave gentle and tranquil-and though their comforts may be scant and their pleasures few, at least their feet shall not be led into humiliation! Come home, major! In no resentment, but in self-respect, let us withdraw the appeal and hush the piteous story! These men fought in honor—let them not be set on the curb-stones of distant Ba vlon to stir the pity of their ancient enemies or catch the crumbs of a passing charity! Come home-and come with our thanks and our gratitude for what you have sought

Reflecting over the above. THE CONSTI-TUTION has this to add: Not for any consideration would it put one straw in the way of any movement for the good of confederate soldiers. Their poverty has long weighed on our mind and the lack of provision made forthe dependent and destitute among them has been a reproach to our

We cannot, however, remain silent under the daily tragedy of begging that is going on In New York. If it had met with instant and spontaneous answer, that gave more in kindliness and sympathy than in money, it might have been well enough. But it has dragged to an extent that makes further importuning out of the question. Texas has more idle money in her treasury than any state in the union, north or south, and we do not believe she will justify the prolonging of this painful spectacle!

But we need Confederates Homes! every state there are men wearing honorable scars who are poor and helpless. The "Lee Camp" Home at Richmond is overcrowded. It is our sacred duty to provide for our heroes. The north has done it by law. Let us do it with love! As long as our veterans wander homeless in our land. or are forced to beg for help from the men they fought, every costly monument that rises above the graves of our dead, is a reproach instead of an honor!

WE MUST BUILD A CONFEDERATE HOME IN GEORGIA! We must build it at once! We must show that Georgia's heart beats true to the men who suffered in her causeand that she will take them to her heart! THE CONSTITUTION will take the matter in hand and appeal to the people. We can easily push it to a success! It must be done! We have never failed in any worthy enterprise, and of all we have undertaken this is worthiest and best!

We start the subscription list for "The Georgia Confederate Home" as follows:

THE CONSTITUTION PUBLISHING COMPANY$1,000 And we shall not rest night or day, until this list is finished, the money raised, the Home started, and established in the love of our people! Every morning we shall print the list of subscribers. Who will be first to subscribe?

The best plan of a home is to secure about one hundred acres near Atlanta, build a home for about $25,000, beautify the soldier who has given the strength of his before a court organized to convict. life to Georgia! It will not require over $50,000 to do the whole work. Shall we not get this in a week?

and the poor from their poverty. Let every man and woman give something, and let us have in tomorrow's Constitution a list that will show the world that Georgia loves her heroes, and that she is able to take care of them. There will be no committee to canvass or beg.

That subscriptions will be made by northern men to the home is no less admirable than undoubted. Such subscriptions will be all the more appreciated that they are spontaneous, and that they grace an enterprise already established in our own self-reliance and sense of duty.

There will be no committee to canvass or beg. Send in your names and your subscriptions. The subscribers will elect a board of directors and call for the money as it is needed! Let us hear from every man who loves Georgia and honors the men who fought for her!

The First Oklahoman.

Captain Payne will go down to posterity as the founder of the coming state of Okla-

He was a western adventurer-a bold and brainy man, full of schemes and expedients, and gifted with some of the magnetic qualities of leadership.

Some ten or a dozen years ago Captain Payne took a trip through the "Beautiful Land," as the Indians call it. He saw a fertile territory with a genfal climate, where every prospect pleased, and where there was nothing vile but man. Why not seize this attractive country, and urn it over to white domination? With this dazzling idea in his mind, this enterprising filibuster harangued the people of Kansas until he had collected a crowd of boomers. A land company was organized, and shares were sold at five dollars each. A colony company was also organized with two-dollar shares. Finally, in 1880, Payne made a break into Oklahoma with twenty-five men, and started a town. At the end of three weeks federal troops marched in, captured the village, and sent Payne and his men to prison. At the expiration of two weeks the boomers were discharged. Finding that he was regarded as a hero, the captain organized a camp of two hundred men on the Kansas border, and waited for another opportunity. For four or fiv years there were occasional invasions of Oklahoma, Squads of men would slip in. locate lands, and be followed by the troops, and ejected, to begin their work over again. In 1884 Payne carried a colony of six hundred into the coveted land, and built a town, with a newspaper, church and school. The soldiers broke up the settlement, and its founder went to prison again. He was released, and was getting ready for another expedition, when death struck him down in his prime. But Payne's work went on. He had started the Oklahoma craze, and men continued to talk about it, and collect in camps on the border. The idea spread like a prairie fire, until speculators and statesmen gave themselves up to it, and at last congress yielded to the pressure, and enabled Payne's followers to accomplish in a lawful way what was unlawful during the lifetime of their leader.

So the dead adventurer was the first Oklahoman. When his colony grows into a state it will honor his memory, and, perhaps, vote him a statue or a portrait in its capitol. Although he knew it not, death overtook him just when success was abou to crown his efforts.

Having One Good Effect.

The rejection of Mr. Halstead as minister to Germany, while to be regretted on the whole, is yet not without consoling features. It has at least had one good effect, and if the Commercial Gazette continues its hunt or the scalps of those whom it considers as traitors in the republican camp, the country may yet have occasion to thank the senate for its action.

Mr. Halstead, in return for the vote of the six republican senators who would not take him, is endeavoring to demonstrate to the country that these six senators are unworthy of their seats, and, judging from indications to date from the seat of war, it appears that he is in a fair way to success.

In a recent issue of the Commercial Gazette, much space and more emphasis is devoted to Senator Plumb, of Kansas, one of the recalcitrant six. Brother Halstead gives a free and interesting bit of war history, in which it is shown that the Kansas senator assisted in an outrageous robbery of a union man of wealth, in Missouri, and that to this crime that of attempted murder was added, for which Judge Advocate-General Holt recommended the courtmartial of, the then, Major Plumb.

Then the Commercial Gazette spreads this dish for the public, by way of comment: From all of which it will appear that the affected solicitude of certain senators over our legation at Berlin may well give way to strong suspicion of damnable unfliness in their own body. If there is any fine shade of difference between the acts set forth in the above record and highway robbery, or the work of road agents, it would be interesting and profitable to have the great brain-splitting con stitutional lawyer. Mr. Evarts, address the senate

The situation grows interesting. In true Monte Cristo style, the able Cincinnati editor, having disposed of one of his party enemies, places his foot on the neck of the prostrate Plumb and, with the fcrefinger of his right hand aimed skyward, exclaims-

One! Now for the other five! The country expectantly awaits developments, but, in the meantime, would like to Why Mr. Halstead has kept silent all these years with such startling information at his finger ends?

However, now that several republican. patriots are on trial, and Mr. Halstead has turned state's evidence, let him proceed.

A French Hero's Methods. Boulanger's flight to Belgium causes all sorts of comment.

His enemies say that It is the death blow to his popularity-that he will be regarded

On the other hand it is suggested that the general yielded to the advice of prudent grounds-make it a place of honor and friends, who told him that the patriots comfort-and open wide its gates to receive | could not afford to lose him, and that he In love and sympathy any and every old owed it to his followers not to trust himself

It is not likely that Boulanger took this step without due reflection. He knew what other adventurers had accomplished in France, and he felt that it would be safe Subscriptions of any amount will be re- to follow their methods. The first Napoceived. Let the rich give from their bounty | leon, banished to Elba, suddenly returned with a few hundred men. On his march from the coast the country people flocked to his standard all along the route. The royalist troops were sent against him, and the man of destiny captured the entire force simply by walking up to the soldiers and throwing open his coat with the daring words: "If there is a man here who will fire upon his emperor let him do it!" What could the veterans do. They gave a cheer and made a rush for their idol, while their officers beat a retreat. It was so at every step of the way. The people rose, welcomed the exile, and the Bourbons were driven out until Waterloo re-established them on the throne.

Boulanger has not forgotten the story of the invasion from Elba, and he thinks that he can make history repeat itself.

There is another precedent. Louis Naoleon, when an exile, made a descent upon Boulogne with a few followers and a ame eagle. The soldiers did not rally to his fiag. They captured him and sent him to prison. Still, the disastrous adventure excited sympathy, and it doubtless had much to do with its hero's subsequent poplarity and success.

If Boulanger cannot duplicate the First Napoleon's exploit he may follow in the ootsteps of Napoleon the Third. Everything is possible in France. Boulanger may turn out to be a clown or a conqueror. A fickle public opinion may condemn him, or it may indorse his course as the perfection of patriotic wisdom. The oldest politicians in Europe are in a fog when they try to see their way to the end of this man's career. To linger in disgrace or die like a dog; to sulk behind the bars of a prison or dictate laws from a palace-any of these destinies may be held in reserve for Boulanger.

Will not every paper in Georgia assist in he movement to build a confederate home for Georgia? Come up, brothers of the press, and let us show the world what the Georgia press can do!

THE symptoms are that there are no more greatrepublican editors to appoint to office.

THE papers now say that Sam Small wants to go to congress to convert that body. Our opinion is that Brother Small will undertake no such hopeless job.

THE democrats are showing up very well Rhode Island. In 1892 the state will be in the democratic co'umn.

THE democrats of Ohio are talking about anning Judge Thurman for governor. The old Roman can carry the state.

THE story of Stanley shows what an enterprising man can accomplish in the politics of Africa.

"GATH" found a good hotel at Brunswick, and he makes much of it. Georgia is a great state, any way. BOULANGER knows very well that a political efugee is a picturesque figure. If Boulanger would get him a steer and wagon and play the ole of Bill Arp's "Big John" in Europe he would create a sensation.

WYLY AND GREENE.

WELL-KNOWN FIRM IN A RE-CEIVER'S HANDS.

The Wholesale Grocery and Liquor Firm of Wyly and Greene Are Placed in the Hands of a Receiver Yesterday-The Business Complications -A Settlement is Possible.

The well known firm of Wyly & Green have been placed in the hands of a receiver.

This aetion was taken yesterday. Early yesterday afternoon a general creditor's bill was filed by Messrs. Abbott & Smith as attorneys for Messrs. Bernheim Bros. & Uri. liquor men of Paducah, Kv.

The immediate cause of this action was the foreclusure by the Lowry Banking company of a mortgage upon the stock of Wyly & Green for $19,000. Last evening this mortgage was foreclosed and the stock was placed in the hands of Mr. W. J. Tanner as receiver.

THE ASSETS AND LIABILITIES. It is impossible to state definitely either the assets or the liabilities of the firm. The heaviest liability was that to the Lowry Banking company, which is secured by the mortgage mentioned. Besides this there are a good many other creditors in different parts of the country, Mr. Wyly estimates the probable liabilities at not far from $50,000 and places the assets at about $70,000. The latter consists of the stock of groceries and llouors and in claims against customers.

MR. TANNER TAKES HOLD. Immediately after the order of Judge Marshall J. Clarke appointing him receiver, Mr. Tanner took charge of the storeroom, No. 28 Alabama street. An inventory of the stock will be begun today unless, as is sincerely hoped by the many friends of Messrs. Wyly & Greene, some plan for settlement is agreed on. THE LOWRY BANK CLAIM has been running along for several years. Some two years ago there were rumors on the streets to the effect that the firm was not altogether strong, but the general revival in busiess enabled them to tide over any diffiulties they may have met at that time, and confidence was at once restored. At the beginning of the last year the firm made an excellent showing, and it is believed now that the assets will be found considerably in excess of liabil-

MR. WYLY TALKS. Mr. Wyly was seen yesterday evening and said: "We had turned over about $70,000 worth of assets to the Lowry Banking company, and they foreclosed their mortgage on us yesterday Mr. Friedman, of Bernheim Bros. & Uri asked the appointment of a receiver.

"To what would you attribute the failure?" "Well, I suppose to slow collections and the large amount of business that we did." CAPTAIN LOWRY TALKS.

Captain R. J. Lowry said last evening: "The amount of the mortgage foreclosed by us was about $19,000. This is a matter that we have been holding off for a long while, hoping that they would pull through all right. It was a part of my father's estate, and just had to be settled. The failure is one of those unfortunate things that can't be helped, and I am yet hoping that it can all be adjusted."

"Is that probable?"
"I don't know really. I don't know."

WYLY AND GREENE. The news of the business complications of the firm of Wyly & Greene will cause universal regret here in Atlanta and throughout the state where these two gentlemen have so many friends. The firm is made up of Mr. Benja min Q. Wyly one of the oldest and best known siness men in the city, and Mr. Alliso Greene, one of Atlanta's enterprising and thorough going young business men. The failure was quite a surprise in business ircles. It is sincerely hoped by the many friends of both gentlemen that some arrange nent can be made by which their temporary embarrassment can be adjusted and that they can continue business at the old stand.

Send in your subscriptions this morning to THE CONSTITUTION fund for building a confederate home. No committees-no canvassing. The object is sacred and appeals for itself!

One of the original fourteen members of the urth Michigan Cavalry, who captured Jeff Davis on May 14, 1865, in Irwin county, Ga., yesterday applied to Clerk Bird fer a marriage liceuse. It was Casper Knobel. He is a strapping Swiss, who was born in the canton of Berne in 1848. He is now noulder and lives at 2624 Coral street. He is also widower, and intends to marry Widow Annie Stoll, of 2631 Coral street. Mr. Knobel proudly displayed the memorial medal presented to him and his thirteen comrade for the great capture which they made. In speak-ing of the event he said that only one of the captors was dead. He told how Colonel Pritchard had detailed them to hunt for the president of the confed erate states, who was trying to escape to a seaport flown with his family.

After two days' hot search they overtook Mr.

Davis. He was in an ambulance with his wife children. There were also two wagon loads of retainers with him.

Mr. Knobel says that Mr. Davis was not arrayed in petiticoats, as portrayed at the time, but in a full gray suit of a confederate general. He was greatly surprised, but took his capture very philosophically.

Mr. Knobel made a prize of Mr. Davis' shirt collar

A Race of Deaf Mutes.

From Frank Leslie's Weekly.
In an article under this head, after referring to Professor Bell's statistics showing that in 1850, out of a population of 23,000,000, there were only 9,803 deafmutes, and in 1880, out of 50,600,600, there were 33,578, and quoting the statement of the pro-fessor that 90 per cent of deaf mutes marry deaf mutes, the editor of the Weekly says: The conclusion reached is one of curious interest. Students of heredity, like Dr. Bowditch and Professor Simon Newcomb, E. D. Cope, Alpheus Hyatt and W. B. Brewer, agree with Professor Beli that if this custom is maintained it may result "in the formation of a deaf variety of the human race in America, in which all or most of the children wil be born deaf." Fortunately for our peace of mind, it is not asserted that deafness is to be a probable street, a noted restaurant and resort of Bohemians and read what he had written. He came wit about half his effort, and for three-quarters of an hour the party was literally in a roar. He called it "A Lecture About Ghosts," and no small part of the fun was that there was not a word about ghos s in it. The next day he finished it, and then the ques-tion was to bring it out. I knew an actor, and semetimes manager, by the name of De Walden, then part of the oid Wallack company, who had some money, and I managed to get him interested. He took Niblo's saloon, now the dining room of the Metropolitan hotel, for one light with the said of the Metropolitan hotel, for one night, with the privilege of six. The first night. with the help of the press, who were all friends of Artenus, was a triumph, and he ran the week, clearing for himself and his manager $4,200. From that time his lecturing was a grand success, and, while Artemus was more than liberal, he saved oney, or, rather, he made it so fast that he could not help its accumulating in his hands. A Committee of Twelve Appointed to Consider the Question of Fertilizers-Resolutions Indorsing the Olive Bill A opted-A Communication From the Committee on Cotton Bagging.

The State Alliance, after being in session a day and a half, adjourned at twelve o'clock

It was pre-eminently a working body, and although the session was short, much good work has been done.

The concluding labors yesterday morning were interesting and important.

A committee of twelve were appointed to consider the question of fertilizers in all its phases and report to the regular meeting in August.

Resolutions were adopted declaring that the alliance is in a more prosperous condition than ever before, that the outlook for a state exchange is bright, and indorsing the work of Colonel Ben Terrell, of Texas, as national lecturer.

The Olive bill was indorsed. President Livingston spoke strongly in favor of this

1st. That the condition of the order throughout ist. That the condition of the order throughout the state is more satisfactory now than at any period of its past history; and that we have the most implicit confidence in its utumate success.

2. That we heartily indorse the effects of Brother Terrell in assisting us to build up the state exchanges, and hereby renew our pledges to do all in our power to further his efforts.

3. That the state exchange is a necessity, and we will not cease to work for the same so long as a necessity for work exists, and we confidently hope that the day is not fer distant when its benefits may permeate every scotion of our grand old commonwealth.

On motion of Mr. T. E. Winn a committee of twelve, consisting of one from each congressional district and two from the state at large, were appointed to take into consideraion the question of fertilizers.

President Livingston appointed the following gentlemen on the committee: THE GUANO COMMITTEE.

President Livingston left the stand and made a strong speech for the resolutions. He argued that the farmers are more seriously affected by the Olive bill than any other class. They made up eight-tenths of the population of the state and paid seven-tenths of the taxes. The Olive bill, he argued, was not a partisan or political measure. Legislators should not complain if they shall be instructed by the farmers to support the bill. If the syndicate of capitalists now trying to control all of the railroads in Georgia, he said, are allowed to take possession of all the railroad property in the state they could not only dictate the manner in which Georgia can use her property but could discriminate for or against whomever they please.

"The purposes of this syndicate are opposed to the principles of the order," he continued. "The motto of the alliance is, 'Equal rights to all—special privileges to none.' The syndicate is a combine to amass wealth to carry out of Georgia to New York, and is a drain upon the resources of the state by which other sec-tions are enriched to the injury of Georgia." He begged the farmers to look well to their interests, and to say to these monopolists, "Thus far you may go, but no farther." His speech was frequently applauded. At 12 o'clock the State alliance adjourned. The regular meeting in August will prob-

"The Habersham alliance have placed themselves on record," said Mr. Johnstone, "as opposed to the use of liquor in influencing elections. Here is a copy of the resolution adouted by them in their last meeting: "Resolved by the Habersham County Farmers' Alliance in session assembled, that we view with feelings of apprehension and discust the increasing use of fiquor at the polls of this county for the purpose of influencing votes. That we heartily condemn such practice, as tending to corrupt society and destroy the purity of the ballot box. That we personally pledge ourselves to total abstinence on election days except within our own homes, and that we will not support any candidate who personally or through friends or agents, continues this disgraceful and revolting cuts om." After the meeting had adjourned, several well known young men got together and resolved to make one more effort for the club. President Wharton was telegraphed the condition of affairs and it is probable that he will come to Atlanta in a day or so. Just what will be the outcome of this effort it is doubtful

Nothing like a thorough canvass of the city has been made, and it may be possible to raise all the money necessary, but the returns so far do not seem to warrrant such a conclusion.

Mr. Ed Peters, of the Atlanta Street Car company. Mr. Peters informed the commission that he would foot the bills incurred in feeding the animals, and would pay the salary of the keeper if the zoo was located at Ponce de Leon springs or the Piedmont park. The commission left disposed to accept Mr. Peters's proposition, at least until the buildings could be erected at the park. Yesterday, however, Mr. Howell, of the commission, and Mr. Gress had several interviews with Mr. Aaron Haas and Mr. Willium Patterson, of the Metropolitan line. These gentlemen stated that they were perfectly willing to do anything they could to assist the park commission in establishing the Zoo. EDITORS ENQUIRER SUN: In view of the fact that Columbus is anxious of entering the Southern league, but understanding that the forfeit is so very high that few cities in the south will be able to enjoy such an expensive pastime, the following suggestions are thrown out:

How would it do if Columbus would co-operate with Atlanta in getting up a club in both cities to play with the league clubs in their off weeks? The intervening time could be put in by contests between the clubs of both cities. By this arrangement the lovers of the national game in Columbus and Atlanta would be enabled to enjoy good ball at much less expense than by keeping a club in the league. Quite a number of our leading citizens have signified their willingness to contribute liderally towards maintaining a club and putting up a purse from one to five hundred dollars to be awarded to the club winning the most games. Columbus would be anxious to hear what Atlanta has to say on this subject.

Dutchman.

The detective is in high feather over the success of his book. He says that he sold 260 Thursday afternoon, and was "set up" to the beers on all sides. The books are still being sold, and the beers still coming.

With the song: "Free from bondage" and also many members free from their overcoats, they form a ring and stop to tell the sinner all about "salvation." Seeing these doubtless "hallelujah-soldiers," and watching their movements closely, some with apparently

"hallelujah-soldiers," and watching their movements closely, some with apparently great interest, others with open prejudice, the question will naturally arise in us: "Who are they; what do they mean?" Much has been said for and against the salvation army; but most always these opinions start from one who perhaps for years watched this "army," but still never nad the privilege of obtaining a just opinion as to their doings. This privilege, which in the eyes of the world night, but seem to be a disgrace, can only be obtained by joining this army and by participating of their "hallelujah ways and manners." state treasury yesterday—one for $4,250, for the deaf and dumb asylum, the other, $4,000, for the blind asylum. They were paid to the treasurer for the support of these institutions for the second quarter. The supreme court has finished the heel of the docket for the October term, 1888, and will take up the Atlanta circuit Monday. The rush of special taxes at the comptroller general's office is about over, and Captain Fur-low has a breathing spell. The author-"Professor" Victor O. A. Strauss—was for eight weeks, as he claims, a salvation soldier. His purpose in writing the book he explains as follows: forwarded the contract for the lease of the Lochrane building for the department of justice to Attorney General W. H. H. Miller.

book he explains as follows:

"The rather light spirit which induces the author to mix ever and anon a joking or vivid remark among his criticising words, is not proposed to hurt any one's feelings and by no means the result of prejudice or hatred, as the army might call it. Thus to give to his readers a satisfactory content of circumstances, which they so far do not know, is the earnest desire of THE AUTHOR."

The female soldiers are generally what they profess to be; though sometimes they also lose their temper, but then they just call it righteous indignation. Hon. Hubert L. Calboun was appointed auditor in the case of Thomas W. Francis vs. D. & J. D. Murchison in the United States ourt yesterday. United States District Attorney Darnell will

Here's criticism for you:
There they rise on the platform and give strong hints as to their past. "Gutter snipes," as the call themselves, that used to crowd the gutters, of the blooming Peters street, drunkards that claim to have jumped into wells thirty-five feet deep with suicidal attempt, walking beer and whisky barrels, gambiers, liars, thieves, tomy sinners, cowboys, and even Indians move from their sins on the platform and parade before the astonishing sinner. Some testimonius compel us to smile about the "great talent" of the speaker, while again other real, heartfelt words of the true and honest Christians can in instances have great effect upon us. The wild "war songs," mixed with their wild explanations what the devil and sin is being us then back again to the light spirit that induces us to criticise them.

his plaintive notes, and the beautiful little violets with their deep blue color is now found on the edge of the branch and side of the hill. Next will come the honey-suckle with their rich and variegated colors. The water moccasin snake is already seen in the creeks and branches, and the black lizard is skeeting around the bark of the tree-to keep out of the way. The deep bass croak of the builtrog is now heard in the mill pend, and the lattle boy with his pin look is fisting for the minuow. The dog wood will next be in blossom, and the angler is happy to fix his rod to take in some of the finny tribe. want to signify as follows: The title was introduced by using "the Lord's name in vain." and naming a small word the contrary of a blessing; and then he was hottored with the title 'that he was the son of something which his mother claimed not to have been. As he had ill manners enough to repeat this name before all without blushing, a maily comrade remarked; "Oh, don't mention that name." But it was done, and the country boy repeated, that "Jesus had given it into his mouth and he had to say it."

. Indefinite at times:

As one of the "comrades" understands the "jum;—
ing part" pretty well, a light hearted "sinner" once remarked to the author, why he would not use the words of "Peck's bad boy" for this hero:

"Bring forth the real numper and let him bump."
[We feel inclined of advising this hero to take a few more out door exercises.]

Important subjects are handled.

Ta king about marrying, the author thinks that the Salvation Army considers marriage an utter failure. They all claim to be married to the Lord, and as once a young man from "across the sea" made up his mind to "woo and win" one of his "sisters in the Lord," he did not only find strong opposition on the part of the leaders, but also an evertasting "blessing" for his ideas, which were simply marked down as a "dirty purpose." He received all titles from a capital har down to a hypocrite, and was found utterly unworthy. A member of the army must belong two years to this order before he is allowed to fall in love with any one but Christ, and if he still tries this, or even causes that "lassie" to leave the "army," he will be denounced before the whole audience as a "scoundrel," and the accusation brought against him, of having dragged "one poor innocent soul" to hell.

The author is an observing man:

Important subjects are handled."

The author is an observing man:
The author, who visited England four times, and made it his special study to watch the movements of this "Army," claims to see further in that matter than many other peop e, and if his private opinion should be required, could not put much faith in them. The English Army seems to be a moneymaking scheme, and this circumsiance is the reason which caused the creation of the Salyation Army of America.

And so it goes.

The Dutchman's book is a literary wonder. ABOUT PERSONS AND THINGS.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Stocks as Reported at the New York Stock

Exchange, NEW YORK, April 5.-Trading in the market today gave additional evidence of the complete change in the speculative temper which has occurred in the past two days, and buying today was by the most prominent houses, while sellers was by the most prominent houses, white selects were principally the local bear contingent, there being a marked falling off in selling orders received from out of town, especially from Boston and Chicago. The market was decidedly broader, dealings being extended to more stocks than usual of late, and the leaders did not show such a large proportion of aggregate transactions. A notable feature was the resumption of the marked advance in specialities, of which several have been dormant for months became conspicous for their Improvement. There was a moderate volume of business at the opening, and first prices were generally from ½ to ½ per cent higher than last evening's figures, but except in Jersey Central and Texas Pacific the opening prices were not maintained. The pressure was not long maintained, however, as the demand for stocks became more general, and before the end of the first hour the entire list raise. Hed and was quickly brought up to something above the opening figures. There was a large crowd trading in Atchison and it became the most active stock on the list, reports that the new names to be voted for at the next meeting are very strong ones, together with the fact that the closing of the books is set for next Tuesday, stimulating purchasing of that stock. The market quieted down about noon, but the upward tendency still continued and in the on the movement became more pronounced, with Missouri Pacific, Burlington, Rock Island and Atchison especially conspicuous. Later reports that the earnings of St. Paul for the quarter would show an increase in net of about $1,100,000 brought that stock more to the front, and it moved up sharply toward the delivery hour. Louisville and Nash-ville was also higher on the increase of 17 per cent in its March egraings, and at the same time conlers, which had been rather sluggish throughout the foreneon, moved up with the rest. The market closed quiet but strong at or near the best prices of he day. Among the specialties which became conspicuous for their advances were Pittsburg and Western preferred, Nickle Plate first preferred, Consolidated Gas and San Francisco first preferred, while Ohio and Mississippi preferred and Oregon Improvement were the weak points in the list. With a few unimportant exceptions the active list is higher tought, and Consolidated Gas rose 2½ per cent, St. Paul preferred 2, Atchlson, Burlington and Missouri Pacific 11/4 each and Northwestern a ike amount. THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Features of the Speculative Movement in Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 5-Wheat was active and un CHICAGO, April 5—Wheat was active and un-settled today, and was controlled almost wholly by local influences. Trading, it is claimed, was heary. At opening the market was unsettled, and after fluctuating for some time, sold off to point 2% c be-low yesterday's closing, recovered some, and closed 1% lower. July, although opening a shade weaker, developed more or less strength, and advanced 1% above inside figures, and closed 3% higher than yes-terday. It was claimed that the same parties who have been credited with being connected with the have been credited with being connected with the bull side of May wheat had been the principal buy-ers for July, and supposed to be for the purpose of covering short sales made some time ago at higher Corn ruled quiet but firm. Transactions were confined largely to operations of room traders, and fluctuations were limited to 1621.

last of the present month. It will be in Atlanta early in May. The marble shaft left Corera, Italy, the last of March, and will be landed in New York daty free. Then it will be brought to Atlanta free of charge. The monument is unlike any in the world, and is said to be the prettiest ever made. It is six feet square at the base and twenty feet high, including the statue. The second base is richly paneled and in-scribed, the die block having an inverted cannon on each corner in full reilef, with the four sides paneled. On the front is the inon the right hand panel is carved crossed swords; on the left hand panel is carved crossed muskets; on the left hand panel is carved crossed muskets; on the rear panel is carved the grave of the confederacy, as shown in the familiar cut used on the letter heads. The cap over the die block is heavily molded; while the plynth on which the statue stands is carved to represent pryamids of cannon balls and shells—the whole presenting quite a military appearance. The statue, which is of Carrera marble, exceuted in Italy, represents an infanity soldier dressed in Juli uniform with musket, bayonet set, and in a position of one on guard, being very life likein expression and commanding in person, The statue is heroic in size, and in addition to the work described, on the panel are the words described, on the panel are the words and they shall beats these words into plow

Between the points of the swords is carved a plow. On the rear panel where the grave of the confederacy is fully represented is shown the four branches of the service, a broken cannon wheel for the artillery, a flattened bugle for the cavalry, a broken musket for the infantry, and an anchor with one arm broken off and cable-pointed for the navy. All these emblems are finely cut so as to show these respective branches effectually and they are so arranged in the grave as to add much to their interest. On the panel on which the crossed muskets are shown the words.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

Mr Frank T. Perkins Has an Eve Seriously Injured in the East Tennessee Shops.

Mr. Frank T. Perkins, a machinist in the East Tennessee shops, met with a painful accident about 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Mr. Perkins was working at a large lathe, when an iron shaven was thrown out with great force, striking him in the eye. The piece of iron was buried a quarter of an inch deep in the eyeball.

Mr. Perkins was carried to Dr. Calhoun's office, where the iron was extracted and the eye dressed. The wounded man was then carried to his home in Pittsburg, just outside of the city limits. It will be determined today whether the removal of the eye ball will be necessary, but at any rate the sight in that eye is permanently destroyed. Injured in the East Tennessee Shops.

BUSINESS IMPROVING. Trade for the Past Week-Prices Still on th

Decline New York, April 5 .- R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The course of rents has not changed. Prices continue to Come Duty Free and Be Brought to Atlanta For sink, though the volume of trade, both do-mestic and foreign, continues large. Railroad earnings show an increase of about 15 per cent. over last year for March, so far as reports have been received, and yet stocks are lower and some have been sharply depressed, though at later quotations a partial recovery is seen. Trade at interior points is pronounced dull or quiet in nearly all cases, though at Cleveland it quiet in nearly all cases, though at Cleveland it is fairly satisfactory and clearly larger than last year; at Atlanta it is satisfactory, with spring business well sustained; at Omaha it is considered good; at Kansas City improving, and at St. Paul trade in dry goods and clothing is very active. There is also some improvement noted at Detroit, particularly in ship building, and lumber is firmer. Philadelphia contractors report larger building operations than ever and real estate transactions of $4,000,000 for March; with duliness in drugs, liquor, tobacco, March; with dullness in drugs, liquor, tobacco cattle, iron and coal trade, though some ac

March; with duliness in drugs, liquor, tobacco, cattle, iron and coal trade, though some activity is seen in structural iron and a better feeling in dry goods.

The money markets are easy with light demand at nearly all ports, and collections, though generally rather backward, have improved somewhat at Kansas City and Detroit, but have fallen off at Atlanta.

Wool has declined for nearly all qualities except new Mexican and Texas, which are a shade stronger; average of 104 quotations is 24.8 cents against 25.1 cents on March 1st. But it is thought that the outlook is favorable for a good demand when the new clip appears unless manufacturing should continue unprofitable. Depressing influences are felt in several branches of the dry goods and clothing trade, not the least being the accumulations of stocks which the open winter left unsold. The demand for woolens is very moderate and orders for importation are restricted. Cottons are duller and print clothes weak at 3.87 cents per 64s. But raw cotton is an eighth stronger, export demand continuing in excess of last per 64s. But raw cotton is an eighth stronger, export demand continuing in excess of last

In the iron market more pressure to realize is seen here and at Philadelphia and southern iron is offered at fifty cents to $1 below corresponding northern grades. Bar iron remains very dull and rails have sold moderately without the lifting of prices. The allotment for year has been increased 200,000 tons.

In the coal market no improvement appears and between the effects of an open winter and war betweenthe companies and individual operators who undersell at pleasure, the situation is discouraging to those who are trying to maintain prices.

Oil has been inactive and a shade higher, but pork 50 cents lower; the pressure to sell abroad and fear of monetary troubles growing out of the Paris difficulty, have reduced the price of coffee half a cent, though a stronger feeling was afterward seen. Average prices of all commodities have again declined over half of one per cent on the week making the fall since March 1st, fully two per cent, and since January 1st over five per cent.

The most important change is the fall of 2g cents in wheat which naturally weakens as the dreams of expected famine give place to the dreams of expected famine give place to the realization of large unsold stocks on hand. Beports from the growing and sowing regions continue to foreshadow a large yield this year, and demands from abroad, though better since the prices fell, is not large enough to promise clearly not the surplus stock on hand.

the prices fell, is not large enough to promise clearing of the surplus stock on hand.

Corn has advanced 1½ cents, export demand continuing, and oats a fraction. Favorable property for the surplus to sustain the confidence of those who look for improvement in all branches of legitimate business. Export business distinctly improves already, and for the past five weeks the value shipped from this port aggregates $24,070,000, against $26,001,000 for the same weeks last year. Meanwhile, in part because of changes in the treaswhile, in part because of changes in the treasury, rulings are expected. Imports have of late been a little smaller than last year. The and ocen a fittle smaller than last year. The apprehension of a stringency in money markets about April 1st has now passed and heavy liquidation in securities on foreign account causes as yet no such withdrawal of foreign capital as has been feared.

Business failures occurring throughout the country during the last week number for the United States 187, Canada 25, total 222, against 240 last week 240 last week.

We receive all these vegetables fresh every morning, and will be pleased to furnish any one with any of the above, either upon telephone or written message. We have today (5th instant) two wild turkeys, fat and tempting. In addition to the seasonable array mentioned, we will state that we have at present, and will have at all times, fat, tender, juicy spring chickens, tempting for the sick. Nothing is more palatable to a bedridden or convalescing patient than a tender spring chicken. For the more robust we have some fat turkeys on foot, which we will dress upon ten minutes' notice. We keep these at all times for special occasions that may arise. We also receive daily shipments of fresh strawberries, and if you are particular about a special fancy quasity, come over and look at our berries, and if not fancy and fresh, do not buy. Table peas have brought high prices all the season on account of the limited supply. We have on hand a quantity which we will sell at cow pea prices, £2 per bushel. This is a bargain. DEAR Size—With much pleasure I am happy to say I am a well woman today, and have gained 37 pounds since I stopped taking morphine. After taking the first dose of your medicine did not want any more morphine, and my friends who saw me a month before I started to taking your medicine do not know me. You have made me a well and hearty woman, and I hope God will bless you and that you may cure all afflicted, for when a woman gets into the habit she had as well be dead. When I left Cedar Keys and came here, and when your medicine gave out I was all right. I wanted to wait and see if I would remain so. Doctor, you can use my name if you wish. I was taking six grains morphine a day. Your obedient servant and sincere friend,

WILL HE APPOINT CLERK?

Mr. Henry R. Harris, Jr., is Removed From the Clerkship to Mr. Bruce-He Talks About the Removal-A. Graves Recommended For the

MR. HENRY R. HARRIS, Jr., has been removed from the position he has held as clerk to Mr. A. C. Bruce, the superintendent of improvements on the custom house, and Mr. Bruce has been asked to recommend A. Graves, colored, of this city, for the place. Mr. Harris, when asked if the rumors to that effect were true, said :

"I have heard these rumors for several days but paid no attention to them until today, when in opening the mail addressed to the superintendent I found a letter asking him to notify me that my services would be no longer needed, and also asking him to name Mr. A. Graves for the place." "Who is Mr. A. Graves?"

"I do not know him, but I understand that he is an honest, intelligent colored man, and I am glad, if I was to be removed at all, to know that the republican party is at last recognizing the claims of the colored people of the south. They are in my opinion the only real genuine republicans in the south."

"How was your removal brought about?" "I can only say that from the telegram re-ceived by Mr. Perry Chisholm, of this city from Colonel A. E. Buck, who was at the time in Washington, that he was instrumental n securing the change."
"How do you feel about it,"

"I think the republicans have only carried out what was known to be their policy in the past, and which has commanded and now commands the respect of all party men. Were I in power I should displace republicans and the sacrifice of myself is no more than I expected—in fact it commands my respect. Had Mr. Cleveland followed that policy I think he would have been stronger in his race for president. Be this as it may, I go out with ill will toward none and kindness toward all. I cannot, however, refrain from expressing regret that the patronage of Georgia should have fallen into the hands ef men who are alien to her soil, whose presnce in the south is due solely to the fact that they wanted the spoils of office.

"I suppose my removal was based simply apon the fact that I am a partisan. I plead guilty to the soft impeachment. I am and always have been an avowd advocate of one principle or another, and Mr. Clevedefeat did not chill my ardor in the cause of democracy one single iota. I do not belong to that class who pander to the powers that be, preferring rather to go down with my party in defeat than to compromise one single senti-ment of my political convictions. I am glad that I am among the first of the subordinates to be removed. It is certainly a compliment to me that my head should go first. "I remember too well that as a boy I took part in the redemption of this state during the reconstruction era from the baleful reign of carpet baggers who had infested this country. I cannot in this day find it consistent with my past record to pander to the same alien influences that dominated the state of Georgia at that period.

"I thought then, and I do now, that men who came into the south for the purpose of holding office were its worst and bitterest ene-mies. I regret to express the lear that the output and Georgia has fallen into these alien hands. Surely they can never build up a republican party of any respectability so long as these carpetbaggers, which have been hap-pily described as 'worse than Attilla, the ourge of God,' control and manage the politics of the state."

"Where is Mr. Bruce?" "He is out of the city, and will return tonorrow. I would not be understood as inveighing against men of the north or east who come south. We welcome them gladly. But it is the imported politician of whom I speak. backed by no recommendation save his own love of office and responsible to no public senti-ment save his own greed for spoils. Such men are the rot of republican sentiment, and should die in the filthy trenches of public indignation. As to these men who have fattened on the offices in the south, I have but one word to say-they are despised by all decent people.

"When the time comes that these aliens shall doff the regalia of the government and stand upon their own merits, then, and not until then, will they receive the estimate in which they are held. I have no words in which to express my loathing of such characters. They are the lazaroni of American politics, and as such should be contemned."

Mr. Harris was appointed to the position a lew weeks ago on the indorsement of Mr. Bruce, the superintendent, who had given a $10,000 bond to the government for the faithful performance of his duty as superin On account of this bond some think Mr. Bruce can not be removed except for cause. Miss Frances E. Willard.

Gould's View of Wealth.

Many stories are told of Jay Gould. One of these has reference to a conversation between Got and a friend, in which the little magnate express the interesting opinion that no man should have more than $1,000,000. On the friend expressing some natural astonishment over this statement coming from Jay Gould, he replied that the posses slomed more than $1,000,000 was apt to lead to ex-coming from Jay Golid, he replied that the possession of inner than $1,000,000 was apt to lead to extravagance, and individual extravagance was bad for the country.

"But," remarked the friend "what would you do with all the money you have over a million dollars."

"I suppose," replied Jay, seriously and meditatively, "that I would have to keep it."

That this story is true can be more easily believed when it is remembered that the philanthropic Jay expressed similar sentiments at a public meeting in Kansas City, some four or five years ago. On this occasion, however, he went on to offer a reason for his own gigantic financial possessions, and said that for years he had been in business, not for the purpose of making money, but simply to assize in the work of developing the country. In prosecuting this philanthropic scheme he had incidentally made a good deal of money, but that was something he had not been able to prevent.

That Tired Feeling

and many people resort to Hood's Sarsaparilla to drive away the languor and exhaustion. The blood, laden with impurities which have been accumulating for months, moves sluggishly through the veins, the mind fails to think quickly, and the body is still slower to respond. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just what is needed. It purifies, vitalizes, and enriches the blood, makes the head clear, reates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling, tones the nervous system, and imparts new strength and vigor to the whole

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is proven to be so vastly superior to any other sarsaparilla, or blood purifier, that one has well aid: "Its health-giving effects upon the blood and entire human organism are as much more positive than the remedies of a quarter of a century ago as the steam power of to-day is in advance of the slow and laborious drudgery of years ago."

"For years I was sick every spring, but last year took Hood's Sarsaparilla and have not been sick N. B. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not
